

Historical data by Wilbur G. Kurtz
Atlanta, Ga.
August 1938

MAP OF ATLANTA AS OF 1938

MAP OF ATLANTA & ITS ENVIRONS
SHOWING THE FIELD AND FORTIFIED LINES OF THE CONFEDERATE FORCES, TOGETHER WITH THOSE OF THE FEDERAL ARMIES -- ALSO THE FIELDS OF THE THREE MAJOR ENGAGEMENTS DURING THE SUMMER OF 1864.

The heavy dotted line at the upper left is the new highway from Marietta which crosses the Chattahoochee River at this point. The course of this dotted line represents a proposed route for a tour of the three battlefields, which includes a stop at the Cyclorama of the Battle of Atlanta in Grant Park.

KEY TO NUMBERS IN CIRCLE

ATLANTA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dear Dr. McMurtry -

Just this will be of some interest to you.

Please let me know when you will be here in Jan. and when you can arrange your schedule so you can have dinner with us. We'll get Dr. Wiley and all have an enjoyable evening.

Kindest regards, Fritz Haeger